Updated farmhouse offers new windows, sunroom

By Ryan Lawrence
Special to the Advocate

Just a 50-minute train ride from New York City, this fully updated, 2864-square-foot home combines modern-day comfort with farmhouse chic.

Entertain guests in a formal dining room and prepare meals in a beautiful, updated kitchen.

Relax next to the fireplace in the spacious living room or in the sunroom saturated with a flood of natural light.

A large, exquisite master suite encompasses the whole third level and features skylights, vaulted ceilings, built-ins and a full bath.

Each generously sized guest bedroom provides good privacy, and the deck and patio overlooks a manicured, private backyard.

A den/study/home office offers a retreat from daily distractions, and new windows allow natural light to pour into every corner of the home.

The three-car garage and full basement provide enormous amounts of storage space, and a hard-wired generator offers protection against potential power outages.

Hardwood floors add warmth and beauty to every single room of this gorgeous home, which features everything you'd expect and more.
